

Bart Brush
Senior Vice President — Capital Markets

T: 412-304-0319
F: 412-304-0391
bbrush@tscbank.com

Bart Brush serves as TriState Capital Bank's Senior Vice President – Capital Markets. In his role, Bart is responsible for client facing initiatives such as the marketing and execution of interest rate swaps and options, the marketing of deposit products to TriState Capital's Commercial and Private Banking client base as well as providing clients with other Capital Markets related products, information and insight. Bart is also responsible for internal strategic functions including his role as a member of the bank's Asset/Liability committee (ALCO), the negotiation and execution of wholesale funding opportunities, hedging the bank's interest rate and foreign exchange risk and managing the bank's relationships with other financial institutions.

Prior to joining TriState Capital, Bart was part of the Financial Institutions Group at PNC Capital Markets. His responsibilities included providing client banks with recommendations and guidance regarding balance sheet structure and derivative products as well as the analysis of different asset purchase and funding alternatives. He has 14 years of experience in banking and finance. Bart has a B.A. in Economics from Harvard University and a M.B.A. from the Tepper School of Business at Carnegie Mellon University.