

Demetrios G. Kastanis
Senior Vice President

T: 212-897-4895
C: 646-499-1539
dkastanis@tscbank.com

Demtrios G. Kastanis serves as Senior Vice President in TriState Capital's New York City Office, where he is responsible for developing and managing relationships with middle market businesses and commercial real estate entities in the bank's New York region.

Demetrios has over 15 years of experience in finance. He most recently served as Vice President, Senior Client Manager with a New York based bank, where he was primarily responsible for driving commercial real estate, hospitality and small business loan segment growth. He also actively promoted the bank's depository products and increased the depository relationship of existing CRE and small business clients.

Demetrios holds an MBA from Pace University, a BBA in Finance/Business Management, also from Pace University.