As President of TriState Capital's Private Bank, Chuck oversees the Relationship Management team. TriState Capital's Private Bank cultivates relationships with family offices, wealth management firms, and individual high-net-worth clients on a regional and national basis. The Private Bank at TriState Capital also provides lending and deposit services to the executives of the companies TriState Capital serves.

Prior to joining TriState Capital, Chuck spent 17 years with Federated Investors, where he provided sales, marketing, product development and business development expertise. During his tenure, Chuck served as a Director of Alliances, Trust Sales/Special Projects Consultant, and Vice President and Director, Marketing and Product Development.

Chuck is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with a dual major in Business and Economics. He earned a Master of Business Administration in Finance from the University of Pittsburgh as well.
