

Victor W. Capozzolo, CTP
Senior Vice President
Treasury and Liquidity Manager

Victor Capozzolo serves as Senior Vice President, Treasury & Liquidity Manager. As part of the Bank's Treasury Management group, Capozzolo is responsible for increasing market visibility, generating new business opportunities and driving revenues.

Victor previously served as Senior Vice President and Director of Sales, Treasury Management for a large regional bank where he was responsible for the development and execution of revenue generating strategies across the bank's business lines including Commercial Banking, Business Banking, Small Business, and Specialized Banking segments such as Healthcare, Asset Based Lending and Commercial Real Estate.

Prior to this role, he held positions at several large banks including Treasury Management Regional Sales Manager, Regional Business Development Director and other roles involving middle market/large corporate sales and strategic product development. Before his career in banking, he was part of the corporate finance/treasury groups at regional healthcare systems in the Pittsburgh area.

Victor graduated from Robert Morris University in 1989 with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration/Accounting. He earned a certificate in Cash Management from New York University/Stern School of Business, and received the Certified Treasury Professional (CTP) accreditation in 1997. He is the former Chairman of the Board and Executive Committee of the Mon Yough Area Chamber of Commerce (regional chamber in Pittsburgh area), served as past president of the Pittsburgh Association of Financial Professionals and has held board positions with various non-profit foundations.