

Roger Muniz
Senior Vice President

T: 646-277-3914
rmuniz@tscbank.com

Roger Muniz serves as Senior Vice President in TriState Capital's New York City Office, where he is responsible for developing and managing relationships with middle market businesses and commercial real estate entities in the bank's New York region.

Prior to joining TriState Capital, Roger had served as a Vice President/Corporate and Middle Market Group with a large regional bank.

With over 15 years experience, Roger has also served as a Senior Vice President/Commercial Middle Market Banking Group for a New York-based bank, as well as for one of the world's largest financial institutions as a Vice President in their middle market group.

Roger attended the College of Financial Planning at Bernard Baruch College in NYC.